Loutro Beach is a picturesque and tranquil seaside retreat in the charming village of Loutro, on the southern coast of Crete. Tucked between dramatic rocky cliffs and the crystal-clear waters of the Libyan Sea, the beach boasts a peaceful atmosphere that is ideal for those seeking relaxation away from crowded tourist hotspots. Unlike many sandy beaches, Loutro Beach features smooth white pebbles that contrast beautifully with the vibrant turquoise and deep blue hues of the sea. The water here is exceptionally calm and clear, making it perfect for swimming, snorkeling, and paddleboarding. With no strong currents or large waves, it is also a great option for families with children.

Tip! Boat rentals are available at an additional cost for trips to Marmara or Glyka Nera. For more details, please ask your guide.

The beach is conveniently located near the village's waterfront, where visitors can find a selection of traditional tavernas, cafés, and small shops. These establishments offer fresh seafood, Cretan specialties, and refreshing drinks, allowing guests to enjoy a meal with stunning sea views. While Loutro Beach is relatively small, it provides essential amenities such as sunbeds and umbrellas for rent, ensuring a comfortable experience. The absence of road access preserves the area's untouched beauty, making it accessible only by boat or a scenic hike from nearby villages. This unique feature enhances its charm, attracting visitors who appreciate its serene ambiance, breathtaking scenery, and the slow, traditional pace of Cretan coastal life.
