Therisso, Zourva & Meskia

Driving up the road from Chania to Therissos is an unforgettable experience, as the road passes through the lush and unique beauty of the homonymous gorge that is 6 km long. Built at an altitude of 580 meters, on the foothills of the White Mountains, makes you feel that the natural environment of the region is simply breathtaking.

The right place to enjoy the beauty of the nature and taste the local flavors is the village of Zourva. It is a small mountainous charming village surrounded by lush greenery. The way the houses are built, maintain the purity and the authenticity of the village.

On the way back we'll make a short stop at Meskia village for a snap of raki.
